GOLF COMPETITIONS OTHER THAN STROKE AND STABLEFORD CONDITIONS OF PLAY

These notes are only intended to assist in the general concept of how various competitions are played. They must be read in conjunction with the Rules of Golf. The Match Committee shall lay down the conditions under which a competition is to be played.

MEDLEY COMPETITION

This event is a simple variation of the Par or Stableford competition. It is played as a Four Ball with two men, two ladies, or the pairing of a man and a lady. Members and ladies both play on their own Stroke handicaps using their own cards.

The advantage of Medley competition is that all club members have the opportunity of getting a game and good entries are often assured.

SINGLE PAR COMPETITION

To understand this event, players need to know the method of allocating full handicap strokes to each hole, as explained for the individual Stableford competition.

Once players mentally determine their own par for each hole, the individual Par competition challenges them to beat their own par. If players do exceed their par, they score a '+' (plus) for the hole. If players equal their own par, they are said to have halved or squared the hole which is scored with a '0'. If par is not achieved, a '-' (minus) sign is recorded.

At the end of each nine holes, and at the end of the round, the score is calculated by deducting the number of minuses from the number of pluses. Halved holes marked with a '0' are considered to be even or square and are not taken into account when determining the result.

The only exception is when all holes are '0' even, and then the result will be '0' even. The player with the highest result is the winner.

When scoring the card, note that the stroke score must always be shown for holes where the player has halved or beaten par.

The Individual Par competition is a fast game to play and allows clubs to cater for large fields when there are minimum daylight hours. It is customary practice for players to pick up their ball once they are beaten by par.

FOUR BALL BEST BALL v PAR

This competition evolves from the individual Par event which has already been outlined. (See individual Par for a detailed explanation of the scoring system used for this type of competition).

As in 4BBB Stableford, two players play as partners and play the course almost as though it was an Individual Par event using their Individual full handicaps.

At the completion of each hole, the player with the best score has it recorded on the card. It will be either a '+' (plus), '0' (half), or a '-' (minus). There is no need to record the scores of both players, since only the best score is required.

The result for each nine holes is calculated and then combined to determine the result for the round. The team scoring the highest result is the winner.

For the sake of a speedier game, it is customary practice for players to pick up their ball once it is impossible for them to exceed their partner's score.

The scorecard must always show the stroke score for holes where par has been beaten or halved.

4BBB v Par can be played as a mixed, member's or ladies event. Ladies use their own tees and scorecard conditions.

FOUR BALL BEST BALL STABLEFORD

The Stableford system (see Individual Stableford) is used for this competition. However, in 4BBB Stableford, two players play as partners, although the hole is played by each of them, using their individual full handicaps.

At the completion of the hole, that player recording the highest number of points has his or her score entered on the card. If both partners score equally on the hole, the score of the player who first completed the hole will be recorded. There is no need to record both scores, since only the best score is required, as the competition name implies.

To speed up the game, it is customary practice for players to pick up their ball once it is impossible for them to exceed their partners' score. 4BBB Stableford can be played as a mixed, members' or ladies event. Ladies use their own tees and scorecard conditions.

When marking the scorecard, the number of strokes taken must always be shown for holes where points are scored. Thus, the card records both strokes and points.

FOUR BALL AGGREGATE STABLEFORD

As the name implies the Stableford system is used in this event and the competition is played with a partner as in a 4BBB Stableford.

Individual full handicaps are applied to each player and the number of points scored by each player is recorded at the end of every hole, as well as a total or aggregate score for the team.

Players' scores are totalled at the end of nine holes and compared with the aggregate score. This should balance with the total of each player's result.

Both sets of nine holes are added together to give total points for each player and an overall result. The team having the highest number of points is the winner. When marking the scorecard, note that both strokes and points should be shown.

Aggregate Stableford can be played as a mixed, members' or ladies' event. Ladies use their own tees and scorecard conditions.

FOUR BALL BEST BALL STROKE

This is a variation of the basic Stroke event with two players playing as partners. Partners play the course as they would for an Individual Stroke event, but using the index, they mentally determine how many strokes they receive on each hole, or how their handicap is spread over the 18 holes of the course.

After completing each hole, both partners determine their net scores and the lowest score is recorded. For example, say both partners received one handicap stroke on the first hole and scored seven and six respectively. This would give them net scores of six and five, so the player scoring a net five would have his or her score recorded on the card.

If both players have equal net scores on a hole, then the player who first holed out has his or her score recorded. Both gross and net scores are totalled for each nine holes and then for the full round. A total gross and net score should also be shown at the top of the card.

The team with the lowest score is the winner. Although clubs usually award trophies on the net result, some clubs will take the gross or scratch result into account.

4BBB Stroke differs from a normal Stroke event in that players can pick up their ball at any time and negate their score for that particular hole.

In the interests of speedier play, it is also customary practice for players to pick up their ball once it is obvious that they cannot beat their partner's score.

FOURSOMES

Foursomes is basically a Stroke event played with a partner, and using only one ball. The rules of Foursomes require the partners to hit off from alternate tees.

Both players agree on the order of hitting off before the game.

Player A may select the odd numbered holes which leaves Player B with the even holes. This decision is entirely theirs and often depends on how confident players feel about certain holes on the course. In Mixed Foursomes, however, the Club usually determines the order of play.

Once a player has teed off, the partners strike the ball alternately until the hole is completed. Therefore, if it is Player A's turn to hit from the tee, Player B will hit the second shot, Player A the third and so on.

Note that if either player incurs a penalty stroke, it does not alter the rotation of play. This includes the playing of a provisional ball.

Foursomes is a lot of fun with an understanding partner and it is played as a Championship event in most clubs. It can be played as a mixed, members' or ladies' competition. Ladies play off their own tees when it is their turn to hit off.

Scoring is identical to the simple method used for Stroke Play and the card should show both gross and net scores after handicap deduction.

The team's handicap is half the aggregate of both players' handicaps. The team completing the course in the fewest strokes is the winner.

CANADIAN FOURSOMES

Canadian Foursomes is played with a partner and both players tee off on all holes. The players then decide together which ball is in the best position and the other ball is taken out of play.

If Player A hit the selected ball from the tee, then Player B will hit the next shot or vice versa. Play continues on an alternate basis until the hole is completed, and for each hole thereafter, incurring a penalty shot does not affect the order of play.

The handicap of each team is calculated by taking 3/8'S of the aggregate of team members' individual handicaps.

Since Canadian Foursomes is a Stroke event, it is simply scored that way on the card showing a gross and net score. The team with the lowest score is the winner.

Canadian Foursomes can be played as a mixed, members' or ladies' event and provides a fun variation of Foursomes play.

TWO STROKE CANADIAN FOURSOMES

Two Stroke Canadian Foursomes is yet another variation of the basic Foursomes competition and differs from Canadian Foursomes in only one respect: both partners hit two shots before alternating play, rather than just a teeshot.

The handicapping and scoring methods are identical to other Foursome events. The handicap of each team is calculated by taking 3/8th of the aggregate of team member's individual handicaps. This competition can be played as a mixed, members' or ladies event. The team with the lowest score is the winner.

AMERICAN FOURSOMES / "PINEHURST"

American Foursomes is played with a partner and both players tee off at each hole, then play a second stroke with their respective partner's ball. The players mutually decide which ball is in the best position and the other ball is taken out of play. Play then proceeds as in a straight Foursomes competition, so that if Player B hit the second shot with the selected ball. Player A hits the next shot and play alternates until the hole is completed. The order of play is unaffected by penalty shots.

Handicapping is determined by taking 3/8's of the aggregate handicaps of both partners. The scorecard is completed as for a Stroke event, showing both gross and net scores. The team having the lowest score is the winner.

American Foursomes can be played as a mixed, members' or ladies' event and is sometimes called Pinehurst Foursomes.

IRISH 4 Ball TEAMS STABLEFORD

This event is a modified Stableford Team event in which the team score is calculated as follows:

On holes 1 to 6; Best ONE score is counted

On holes 7 to 11; Best TWO scores are counted

On holes 12 to 15; Best THREE scores are counted

On holes 16 to 18; All FOUR scores are counted

The team with the highest aggregate Stableford points WINS.

2BBB PLAYING CONDITIONS

A 2BBB is a novelty event that is played in conjunction with a single event. The single event is the main event and the rules of golf for it must be adhered to – eg partners are not to give advice.

The scoring for a 2BBB is the same as a 4BBB and must be scored on a separate card. If you don't have a partner, you fill in two cards with your scores on each. At the end of the competition the committee will draw a partner for you from among the other single cards on the day and make up a team.

Total gross and nett scores are shown on the card and the team with lowest score is the winner. Special conditions may apply from time to time.

SINGLE MATCH PLAY

Golf was played under the Match Play system for hundreds of years and many championships and pennant competitions are still played this way. Match Play simply means that the game is played by holes, rather than by calculating the total number of strokes.

A hole is won by the player who holes his or her ball in the least number of strokes. In a handicap match, the lower nett score wins the hole. The handicapping system in Match Play is based on the difference between the players Stroke handicaps, so that a player on a handicap of 10 would have to give an 18 handicapper eight strokes. These strokes would be allocated according to the Match Play index printed on the scorecard.

Where there is more than 18 strokes difference between handicaps, players receive two strokes per hole where applicable, using Match Play index.

Match Play has its own set of rules which is incorporated in the Rules of Golf. It is advisable for players to be familiar with these rules, as some of them differ from the rules covering Stroke Play.

FOUR BALL MATCH PLAY

This event is regularly played at club level and generally the same conditions as for Individual Match Play apply.

Handicaps are applied by reducing the Stroke handicaps of all players by the handicap of the low handicap player, who will then play off scratch. The other three players are then allowed their resulting handicaps.

Strokes are taken in accordance with the Match Play index on the scorecard. For example, if Player A's handicap is 10, Player B's 22, Player C's 15 and Player D's 11: then Player A would be off scratch, B off 12, C off 5 and D would play off 1. D would get a stroke at the number 1 hole on the Match Play index, C on holes 1 to 5 and so on.

Once again, players should refer to the Rules of Golf, and in particular, those relating to Match Play. The match result is determined in the same way as for Individual Match Play. Although a scorecard is not officially required, players may choose to keep an unofficial record.

AMBROSE EVENTS

This event may be played as a Two, Three, or Four Ball event, although the Four Ball is the most popular.

The team selects a Captain (preferably the lowest marker) who is responsible for the method of play and marking of the card. The Captain also determines the order of play which is then maintained throughout the event.

All players hit off from the tee and the Captain then decides which ball is in the best position, no matter where their previous stroke finished. The Captain then marks the spot of the chosen ball and in the determined order all players drop their ball within one club length to the mark on the fairway.

The Captain makes a similar selection after the next shot and play continues in this way. If the selected ball is in the rough or a hazard, the other balls must be dropped in the rough or hazard.

On the putting surface, all balls must be putted from within 15cm of the spot where the selected ball lies. First player to putt MAY hole out. The rest of the team can putt to better the first player's score.

Ambrose is scored as a Stroke event and handicapping is as follows:

Two Ball event 1/4 of aggregate individuals Stroke handicap

Three Ball event 1/6 of aggregate individuals Stroke handicap

Four Ball event 1/8 of aggregate individuals Stroke handicap

Each player must have his or her handicap recorded on the card and the Event handicap will also be shown on the card at the commencement of the game. At the completion of the event, the card is counter-signed by another member of the team.

Each player must have a minimum number of drives recorded on the card – 6 in Two Ball, 4 in Three Ball and 3 in Four Ball.

TEXAS STABLEFORD

This is a team game of usually 4 mixed players where each player tees off the appropriate colour tee and the best drive is then chosen and marked. All players drop their ball within one club length of the chosen drive and then play their own ball through to the hole.

The best three Stableford scores are recorded. On Par 3's ALL players play their own ball from tee through to the hole and again the best 3 scores are recorded. Remember do not pick up your ball after you play your 2nd shot.
